

Editor and Publisher:
Hans Peters, Jr.
Published regularly.
Price 2¢ per copy.
Subs: 1¢ per week.
Advertising rates:
10¢ per column inch.

Bright Gems

Vol. I No. 10

Saturday June 2, 1956

Bryn Gweled

60 copies

A LITTLE BIRD TOLD ME

Bert and Ellen Dempster are at Holyoke, Mass. this weekend for Ellen's tenth alumnae reunion. The Wilsons are occupying their house. Kent and a guest are staying with them.

Richard Muller is going to Devereaux School near Westchester Pa., to be an athletic counsellor at the summer camp there.

Wm. Dockhorn is going to Mexico this summer.

Wm. Morris is going to Backlog as a camp boy.

Jessica Newton is going to Tanglewood for two weeks.

Jane Fredendall will arrive home from Earlham on Monday.

Sue Paxson has arrived home this week from Juniata State Teacher College.

Cora Myers is expecting a baby at the end of September.

The First Day School of the Southampton Friends Meeting will hold its annual Picnic at the Peters' this Sunday.

Hans Peters Sr. will attend the National Convention of the Socialist Party in Chicago next Fri. Sat. and Sun.

A.L.B.T.M. (cont.)

The Southampton Friends Meeting will have its first wedding next Saturday, June 9 at 3:00 pm. Miss Irene Lunan of Mexico City who recently received an M.A. degree at Bryn Mawr College, will wed Navin Gajjer, a native of India. Mr. Gajjer works at the DuPont plant in Wilmington, Delaware.

The Health & Welfare committee is organized as follows: Caroline Lovett-Chairlady, Pearl Fredendall-Blood donations, Jane Peters-Food and general aid to the ill, Paula Stumacher-New Baby bank accounts Eleanor Gibson - Presents to hospitalised homesteaders.

VISIT THE MODEL HOME
at Greenbelt Knoll, furnished by George Mason Inc. Holme Ave. 1 mile east of Penny-pack Circle and U.S. 1 Contemporary homes, 3 and 5 bedrooms $ 18,850.00 and up. Montgomery and Bishop Architects; Margaret Lancaster Duncan, Landscape Architect; Harry Duncann Designer. Open week-ends from 12 to 5 Tel. EL 7- 4356 Adv

PROGRESS REPORT

The studs and some of the partitions of the Sperling house are in place. Also some of the screens have been installed.

The Barskys have some new stone in their driveway.

The grass on the soccer field is full grown. Our coach, Hans Peters Sr. urges all players to go there and practise. A ball may be gotten from the Hans Peters' at any time.

The driveway of the Powers house has been paved.

EXCHANGE "Bright Gems" is willing to participate in an exchange. If you want to buy or sell anything, advertise in "Bright Gems" Call EL 7-1000 Ext. 3

PHILA. SOC. FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN & ADULTS. Day Camp at George School beginning June 18. Four days a week, for 6 wks. Volunteers needed esp. for swimming program. Anyone interested get in touch with Pearl Fredendall. Adv

FOR SALE Boy's Bike 20" Good condition, new tires, recently overhauled. $ 7.50 Barsky Adv